

MILLENTEN QUIETNESS HOVERING OVER SOCIETY; TOLTEC DINNER-DANCE THURSDAY

THE quietness of mid-week will dominate the coming week, for there will be very little going on in a social way. The departure from the border of the troops that have been so long stationed here has also had much to do with the dullness of the social season, as the army has been discontinued and also the social activities at which the army people were hosts.

One large social event, certainly the fortnightly dinner-dance to be given Thursday night at the Toltec club. Some delightful surprises are planned for this affair.

An evening concert is planned by the music department of the women's club for Monday night, to be given in the auditorium of the Toltec club. The program will be a miscellaneous one with various composers represented. One feature of particular interest will be the rendition of the "Ballad of Despair," which was given some time ago with very great success. As Wednesday will be the fifth Wednesday in the month, there will be no meeting of the club on that afternoon.

An interesting and rather unusual entertainment will be given Wednesday night by the Pythian sisters, in which a number of well-known people will take part. A magic mirror will be shown by a magician and in this a bachelor will see all the loves of his life and finally the girl who is to be his wife.

Miss Edna Sorrenson, a bride to be, will be entertained on Wednesday afternoon with a bridge party by Miss Edna Sorrenson and on Saturday afternoon with a bridge party by Mrs. Roseland Gilchrist and Miss Gertrude Leighton.

Miss Ella Jackson, who is to be the bride of Clarence Hunter of Alamosa, early in April, will be the guest of honor at a number of pleasant affairs before her marriage. Mrs. R. E. Stoddard will give an informal luncheon in her honor Tuesday afternoon and early in the following week Mrs. Otto H. Armstrong will entertain with a bridge party in the tea room.

There will be the usual meeting of the group of informal clubs who meet to sew or play cards. Miss Anne Albro will entertain the Elbert Bridge club Monday afternoon. Miss Frank M. Murchison will entertain the Silk Stocking bridge club Tuesday afternoon. Wednesday the Jolly Eight Bridge club will be entertained by Mrs. Edgar W. Ferguson. Mrs. D. B. Blazinskie will entertain her sewing club Wednesday afternoon and Mrs. Frank Moss will be the hostess for the Wednesday Embroidery club Wednesday afternoon.

The usual weekly meeting of the El Paso Equal Franchise league will be held Thursday afternoon in the chamber of commerce at 2 o'clock.

The El Pasoos are returning.

Louise Blumenthal, who has been visiting in Chicago for several months, will return today to her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Blumenthal, on North Oregon street. Mr. and Mrs. William L. Lindenthal and little baby, whom Miss Blumenthal visited in Chicago, are accompanying her to El Paso and will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Blumenthal, for a short time.

Superfluous Hairs Just Dissolve Away

Famous Beauty Secrets that Have Made the Theatrical Star, VALESKA SURATT, America's Greatest Self-Made Beauty.

BY VALESKA SURATT

NEVER see a woman with superfluous hair on her face or body that it does not remind me of some case woman. It is hideous, and it is inexcusable, because so easily and thoroughly removed, at least it becomes so by using the following which never fails. You must have the hair removed with a solution. You see the hair dissolve away in quite a remarkable manner, and you then wash it off. The skin is left clear, soft and unmarked. Another special feature is that it can be used on the tenderest skin, or any part of the body with perfect safety. It can be obtained at any drug store. Ordinary depilatories burn off the hair and leave a red or irritated spot where applied. But instead of burning off the hair and irritating the skin, no matter how tough, this solution dissolves the hair and is a positive benefit to the skin.

LOOKING OLD—I am particularly proud of the results of my skin rejuvenator, which is a cream made by dissolving two tablespoonfuls of glycerine and two ounces of epsom in a half pint of hot water. This is the most astonishing wrinkle remover I have ever found, making crow's feet, deep wrinkles and lines disappear with great rapidity. It makes the skin plump, youthful and vigorous and with faithful use you will soon see a tremendous difference in your appearance. The spot can be obtained at any drug store. This also makes the most economical cream you can get.

FALLING—I am known as the only woman on the American stage who wears no hair switches or other hair make-ups. Follow my suggestion and use my hair powder. This is a half a pint of alcohol and half a pint of water (or else you may use a full pint of water if you wish) and to this add one ounce of beta-quina. It has a powerful action upon the hair cells, hair roots and the scalp. Your hair will be healthy, vigorous, fluffy, and grow luxuriantly. It will be starting in its regrowth.

JUDITH B.—There is only one perfect head wash that I know. This is a good one. Dissolve one teaspoonful of this in half a cup of hot water. You will have a hair and scalp cleanser which is unusually thorough and which is gentle in action. It is a good skin in all cases, dirt and dead skin, leaving the hair soft and shiny. The agent can be secured at any drug store. It is a surprise to a soap or other shampoo.

Women's Organizations.

On account of the very serious illness of the mother of Mrs. A. O. Buckner, chairman of the music department of the Young Women's club, the musical concert to have been given by the department Monday night has been indefinitely postponed.

There will be no meeting of the Young Women's club Wednesday, as it is the fifth Wednesday in the month. The club will meet on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, but as it occurs in Lent, it was decided to postpone the event until the following week.

The St. Patrick's altar guild met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. G. Roe, 2201 East Boulevard. The afternoon was spent in sewing. Later refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Clara Topfer, Mrs. J. L. Driscoll and Mrs. W. Woodward. The only guest of the society was Mrs. J. J. Ford.

A new member of the society, Mrs. A. H. Hickey, was received. There were 20 present. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Kennedy, 249 Broadway.

The officers of the Alta Vista Missionary society of the Alta Vista Methodist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James McCreary, on Hueco street. The reports for the quarter were prepared. Miss Alice Carr, of Terrell, was chairman. Mrs. J. B. Kennedy was a guest of the society and gave helpful suggestions for the work.

Following the business session, time was enjoyed at a social hour. Those present were Mesdames H. N. Miller, P. L. Spivak, A. T. Rogers, V. A. Ken, H. Harper, Ellen Powell, C. E. Rhodes, W. H. Lark, James McCreary, Misses Margarette McCleary and Alice Carr.

School Notes.

The inspiring days of the Crusades will be one of the epochs of the Pageant of Civilization, which will be presented by the public school children of the city the last of May as the graduation exercises and as the dedication of the high school stadium. The crusade speech will be presented in four scenes. The first will show Peter the hermit, acted by Raymond McCracken, before the holy sepulchre in Jerusalem with the Saracens who possess the city. The second will be acted by Austin Baker. The scene where Pope Urban exhorts his people to undertake the crusade and the third will be acted by the crusade forces. The presentation of the scenes which each crusader was a symbol of his role in the crusade. The fourth scene will be an effective incident in this scene. The scene depicting the departure of the crusaders will include the festival in their honor and a dance in which the following will take part: Marie Kerr, Florence Chubbart, Rachel Hughes, Myrtle Nold, Josephine Taylor, Martha Pike, Miss Mae McLennan, Gladie Weath, Carolee Vines, Anna Marie, Florence Rogers, Daisy, Gladie, Julia, W. H. Statham, Ruth Loran, Virginia Dawson, Katherine Taylor, as Sir Galahad, representing the ideal knight.
